

Advice for international students travelling to Australia from mainland China

The Australian Government has increased its border measures to limit the escalating threat of the novel coronavirus.

For international students outside Australia

- From 1 February 2020 and until further notice international students who are seeking to leave, or have transited through, mainland China will not be able to enter Australia. Further information about health arrangements is available on the Department of Health website www.health.gov.au/resources/collections/novel-coronavirus-2019-ncov-resources#schools-universities-and-higher-education
- If you are concerned about your enrolment, fees or other issues related to your studies, please contact your education provider.
- If your education provider cannot assist, please see the Department of Education, Skills and Employment website at www.dese.gov.au or contact international.students@dese.gov.au.

For international students already inside Australia who have recently arrived from China

- You need to follow the information available on the Department of Health website, specifically around exclusion periods. Please visit www.health.gov.au/resources/collections/novel-coronavirus-2019-ncov-resources#schools-universities-and-higher-education
- If you are within the exclusion period, you should remain excluded consistent with the Department of Health advice. You should also contact your education provider to let them know your situation. More information is available on the Department of Health website www.health.gov.au/resources/collections/novel-coronavirus-2019-ncov-resources#schools-universities-and-higher-education
- If you are outside the exclusion period, you are able to attend your education institution. Please contact your education provider if you have any questions or concerns.
- If you are experiencing difficulties with the exclusion arrangements, please contact your education provider in the first instance.
- If your education provider cannot assist, please see the Department of Education, Skills and Employment website at www.dese.gov.au or contact international.students@dese.gov.au.
